March Charity—Special Olympics

Special Olympics is our charity this month! Previous newsletters have explained what Special Olympics is so we won't repeat ourselves. Just know that our local organization is AWESOME and well deserving of our support. We will collect monetary donations at the monthly club meeting AND hand out the change jars to be refilled AND we will have a chili contest/cookoff fundraiser on April 11 on the Beerworks deck—all to benefit our local Special Olympians! Please be generous! More information will be provided about the chili cookoff at the March club meeting. Be thinking about your prizewinning recipe (yes, there will be a prize)!

April Charity—Bluegrass Council of the Blind

Our April charity will be the Bluegrass Council of the Blind, of which our own Theresa Thomas (a/k/a “Sunora”) is the executive director! The Club is helping to sponsor and will provide some hands on help for their “See” Cruise fundraiser on April 12 at the Southside Pub. More details about this fabulous organization and the event (starring Conch Republic) will come. It will be SO MUCH FUN—definitely a can't miss event!!

HAPPY HOURS ARE THE FIRST TUESDAY OF EVERY MONTH!

March 3 Happy Hour—

Our March 3 happy hour was at Shamrocks. We had fun and raised money for Special Olympics! Great job, Carole!

We will keep you posted about the place for the April 7 happy hour. Check your Team Snap emails for updates!

Board Member Spotlight!

This month we are meeting our VP of Wildlife, Carole Stump! She has been a club member for many years. She is a retired (lucky) teacher!. She is a Parrothead because this is one of the most generous groups she has ever known, with exceptional people! She has LOTS of great Club memories of the concerts, house parties, riding the bus, Parrothead Rendezvous in Panama City Beach, crawfish boils, Christmas parties, happy hours, and hands on charity activities —impossible to pick just one favorite memory! Carole says that if she were stranded on an island and could only have 3 things she would want her grandkids, the BGPHC and her Keurig Coffee machine (with coffee). We can't believe she didn't include her White Zinfandel! Carole is doing a wonderful job arranging our happy hours this year!

St. Patrick's Day Parade

About 17 of us braved the rain to march in the St. Patrick's Day Parade on March 14. It was a GREAT time and the rain held off for the parade itself. Our vehicles were decorated to the hilt. We gave away beads galore to the happy onlookers. Thanks to all who worked and played so hard!
