April Charity—Bluegrass Council of the Blind

The Bluegrass Council of the Blind is our charity this month! As you know, the Club was a sponsor of the April 12 See Cruise at Southside Pub and also helped out a little bit with the preparations. As always, the See Cruise was a total BLAST!! It is always so much fun to get together to hear and dance to the awesome music of Conch Republic. Their new singer, Mike Archer, is a great addition to the band! We also raised money for BCB at our April happy hour at Winchells (YUM!) AND at our April monthly meeting. This is a generous group of people, and it is such a joy to support others. And we always love to support our own Theresa "Sunora" Thomas!

May Charity—Clean Out Your Closets!

Our May "charity" will be for the Club's 20th Anniversary Party (happening in August)! We will need items for the silent auction and party decorations. SO, in May please rummage through those closets for anything you would like to donate to the auction or the party decorations! Bring it all to the club meeting on May 15. Tacky or in poor taste? Bring it on! Anything to do with liquor or the beach or Jimmy Buffett? Bring it ALL on!

HAPPY HOURS ARE THE FIRST TUESDAY OF EVERY MONTH!

April 3 Happy Hour—

Keeneland and Chili Cookoff

Unfortunately, the rain caused us to have to cancel the Keeneland outing on April 19 (Boo! Hiss!). But the weather was wonderful for the chili cookoff at Lexington Beerworks on April 11 to benefit Special Olympics! Mary Payton won first prize with a pretty awesome chili! Thanks to everyone who came out and to Beerworks for their support!
